

press release

June 17, 2002

Trilogy Leasing expands its presence to the Southeast

June 17, 2002. In step with Trilogy's stated direction of a continued geographic and product diversification, the company is pleased to announce that Todd Barocas, has joined the company as a Regional Sales Manager for the Southeastern United States. Todd will be based in Asheville, North Carolina and will cover the Carolinas, Tennessee, Virginia, Georgia and Florida.

"Todd brings to Trilogy a new geography, a working knowledge of the capital equipment market and tremendous energy and initiative" stated Jeff Liebenthal, company President and CEO. "We are most pleased that Todd has decided to join us and feel this additional talent and experience will greatly benefit the expansion of Trilogy. Trilogy will further blanket the continental United States and will add to its expertise in the capital equipment market. Todd will work in a previously untapped market for Trilogy and add our IT and telecommunications experience to his portfolio".

Trilogy Leasing is a diversified leasing company focusing on the computer, telecommunications, construction, warehouse, medical and mail-handling equipment markets. The company has offices in New Jersey, Boston, Long Island, Philadelphia, Maryland, Chicago, Arizona and Southern California.