

press release

September 16, 2002

Trilogy Continues to Perform

September 16, 2002. Trilogy Leasing, a Cranbury, New Jersey-based leasing company specializing in technology, capital, warehouse, mailing, and medical equipment is pleased to provide an update of its progress through the first half of 2002. During 2001, the company posted revenues in excess of $16M and profits of over $800K. Through the first half of 2002, the company has increased revenues by an amount comfortably greater than 15% and profits by a margin comfortably over 25%.

“The company is experiencing strong performance from the portfolio and is continuing to originate leases at a healthy clip,” stated Jeff Liebenthal, President and CEO. “We continue to manage the business carefully while we put in place sufficient infrastructure for the growth which we have been enjoying. Trilogy has been able to pay down debt and our geographic and portfolio diversification is in full swing. We remain both vigilant and optimistic.”

Although a private enterprise, Trilogy will continue to provide updates on its progress and will provide a full year review after the yearend.