Trilogy Leasing Named to 2009 Monitor 100 List

CRANBURY, NJ, June 19, 2009 -- Trilogy Leasing, an independent leasing company specializing in Technology Equipment Leases, has been recognized by The Monitor, the leading publication in the equipment and finance industry, as one of the Top 100 equipment leasing and finance companies in the U.S. Trilogy placed number 97 on the list.

"We are pleased to be included in The Monitor 100 list," said Jeffrey Liebenthal, President and CEO, Trilogy Leasing. "Trilogy continues to look for expansion and growth opportunities even during these tough economic times. Our inclusion in the prestigious Monitor 100 listing affirms that our strategy of capturing market share during the current economic cycle is having success."

The Monitor's annual survey and ranking are based on business activity reported by U.S.-domiciled lease financing companies. A company's rank in the Monitor 100 is determined by its net investment in equipment related loans and leases. To be considered for the Monitor 100 list, equipment lease finance companies provide year-end data about their investment and new business volume, focusing solely on equipment-related loans and leases.
